

Search!

advanced search

Saturday January 26 108

Explore

Main Menu

Submit a review

Single Reviews

Album Reviews

DVD Reviews

Book Reviews

Sign up for newsletter

Links

Get Your EMail Address

Submit your website

Singles Bar: October 2007

We've listed singles/EPs/demos in order of star rating. Best first.

ANEMO Pray

Anemo's debut album Slowburn got an excellent review from GRTR! So what of their first post debut single Pray inspired by the capture and hostage taking of BBC correspondent John Simpson?

Opening with eastern wailing, and this time out with twin lead vocals from sisters Hazel and Erika Woodhurst, the good news is that Anemo have taken their sound onto a new level with a terrific rock track that is not only one of the best you'll hear this year, but which also reveals a band that no longer sounds derivative. The future looks bright. Very bright indeed. Magnificent. *****

Review by Pete Whalley

Featured Artists

Artist Archive

Featured Labels

Label Archive

Do you want to appear here?