/ Pray - Anemo

Hotly tipped by the one and only Bruce Dickinson as "One To Watch" Anemo release their vision of what Rock music should sound like. The powerful passion rich vocals are one of the first things that hit you from vocalist Hazelle Woodhurst and then the fuzzy bass and driving beats hit you. The track 'Pray' was inspired by the true story of John Simpson covering the war in 2003 when a US aeroplane bombed him and the US special forces that were their escort in error, a so called "Friendly Fire" incident. The single is also a tribute to all the people who have died over the years reporting the reality of war across the globe. Playing as a 7 piece live the band have tried to capture the power and emotion of their live sound on this record. This is my first introduction to Anemo and I look forward to their 2nd album due in 2008.

Rating: 8/10
