CLASSIC ROCK SOCIETY Magazine - October/November 2008

Anemo Stentorian City Canyons Records

The new album from Anemo hits the ground running and doesn't really let up. Still perched on the rock side of pop rock this is a good quality collection of well written and delivered tunes. There power and glory in the music, and soaring passion in the vocals that combine beautifully well. Throw in a few studio tricks and you have an excellently sounding of lively modern music. AE
